The Brace Center for Gender Studies is an academic resource center where students and faculty learn more about research on gender.

Stories on the plight of Muslim women abound in the media. We hear that women in Muslim majority countries are oppressed. Surprisingly, many Muslim women have become the top political leaders in their countries. Why were they successful? What do their successes mean for women in their home countries—and for women around the globe? Come find out the answers to these questions and more!

Student Fellow:
Meredith Rahman ’10

Monday,
February 8, 2010
5–6:30 p.m.

Dinner included

School Room, 3rd floor of Abbot Hall

Cosponsored by the Muslim Student Union and the Brace Center for Gender Studies

The Brace Center for Gender Studies is an academic resource center where students and faculty learn more about research on gender.