CLASS SECRETARIES GATHERINGS

After the onset of COVID-19, the Committee pivoted by hosting virtual gatherings with Class Secretaries, organized by decade. Keep an eye on your inbox for announcement about future gatherings!

ANDOVER MAGAZINE
Upcoming Class Notes Deadlines

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Classes</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
<th>Word Count</th>
<th>Expected Mail Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Reunion 2021/Fall Issue</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-reunion classes</td>
<td>6/23/21</td>
<td>800</td>
<td>October 2021</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reunion classes (0s, 5s, 1s, 6s)</td>
<td>6/30/21</td>
<td>1,100</td>
<td>October 2021</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Future deadlines to be announced in late summer.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE
Jack Gray ’74          Caroline Jarboe ’86          Ramona Morgan ’93

CLASS SECRETARIES IN THE ANDOVER MAGAZINE WINTER 2020 ISSUE

Nancy Harris Frohlich ’67
“A light-bulb moment inspires lifelong career” by Nancy Hitchcock (p.28).

Gordon Baird ’68
“Seas the day” by Joe Kahn ’67

Need inspiration for your next issue of Class Notes? Check out these prompts from the Class Secretaries Committee:

- Non Sibi Heroes – feel free to reach out to the Non Sibi Committee to nominate and ask your classmates to do the same!
- Favorite Andover memories?
- What crazy adventures or purchases have you done in light of COVID?
- How have you maintained social connections during the last year?
- "Tell me your story/Give me your full tale."